White Glove

Not your ordinary moving company, White Glove Storage and Delivery goes above and beyond when it comes to moving, storing or installing valuable home decor. Offering a range of services from packing, relocation, installation, repair, refinishing and temperature controlled warehouse storage, White Glove is equipped to handle fine furnishings, arts and antiques. "Our quality of service is what sets us apart from other moving and storage companies," says Austin operations manager Jesse Metzger. "Our staff is professionally trained and able to go that extra mile that a lot of the high-end clientele requires." Initially conceived to cater to interior designers and furniture and art showrooms, the services are now available to residential and commercial clients. 2209-A Rutland Drive, Ste. 300, 490-1500, whiteglovetexas.com
